BROTHER-IN-LAW DIES.

Miss Mollie Patton, of 216 Mechanic street, has gone to Masontown, Pa., to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, J. W. Altman, who died there Tuesday after a long illness of tuberculosis.

PICKENS FUNERAL.

Funeral services over the body of Mrs. Carl D. Pickens, who died at the home of her mother at Lost Creek Tuesday morning, will be held at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon instead of 2 o'clock as announced Tuesday.

AGED MAN DEAD.

GRAFTON, Feb. 25.—L. M. Newcome, father of Magistrate Newcome of this city, is dead at his home at Keyser after a lingering illness at the age of 85. Until two years ago he was a prominent farmer of Taylor county.

TAKEN TO WASHINGTON.

James R. Pullian, a bartender who was arrested and jailed here on a fugitive warrant alleging that he was wanted in the District of Columbia on a charge of failing to support his wife and child there, was taken to Washington, D. C., Tuesday night by an officer of the district, who came here to get him.

All the best varieties of fresh fish received daily. No charge for dressing. Carskadon's Sanitary Grocery.—Advertisement.

GRAND JURY TO MEET.

The March grand jury of the criminal court will meet next Tuesday here and be in session several days as there is a large volume of business covering a wide range of crimes to be looked after. About 260 summonses have been issued and the sheriff and his deputies are busy serving them.

Consul General Alban G. Snyder writes that an experimental cotton-growing farm is being conducted at Balboa, Panama canal zone, by a practical cotton grower from North Carolina. It is stated that a fifteen-square yard plot yielded about fifteen pounds of bolls, or at the rate of 4,500 pounds of seed cotton per acre, the lint being two or three inches long.
